Lynne Kortenhaus Joins Board of Trustees of the Pilgrim Monument and Provincetown Museum

Provincetown (January 13, 2010) – The Pilgrim Monument and Provincetown Museum (PMPM) announced today that Lynne Kortenhaus has been appointed to the Board of Trustees. Kortenhaus is president and chief executive officer of Kortenhaus Communications in Boston, Massachusetts.

An active supporter of the arts community, Kortenhaus is also a trustee of the Citi Performing Arts Center, the Fine Arts Work Center in Provincetown, and the Back Bay Association. In 2005, she was appointed by the City of Boston as a commissioner for the Boston Public Art Commission. She also serves on the Corporate Advisory Group at Massachusetts College of Art and Design and the Institute of Contemporary Art's Corporate Partnership Council.

“It is a pleasure to welcome Lynne to our board. Her dedication and integrated knowledge of marketing and the arts will bring extraordinary insight to Pilgrim Monument and Provincetown Museum, particularly as we prepare to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the dedication of the Monument this year,” said Charles Silva, President, Board of Trustees.

The Pilgrim Monument and Provincetown Museum will celebrate the rededication on August 5, 2010. Plans are underway to commemorate the historical event.

“It is an honor to join the PMPM Board of Trustees. This is a very exciting time for PMPM and I look forward to being a part of it,” said Kortenhaus.

Educated in the visual arts, Kortenhaus received both her Bachelor and Master of Fine Arts degrees at Rhode Island School of Design.

She is a resident of Charlestown, Mass., maintains a residence outside of Clearwater, Florida and summers in Provincetown, Mass.

About the Pilgrim Monument and Provincetown Museum

Pilgrim Monument and Provincetown Museum is a non-profit educational, tax-exempt 501(3)(c) organization. Its mission is to commemorate the history of the Mayflower Pilgrims, culminating in their arrival and stay in Provincetown Harbor, and the signing of the Mayflower Compact. In addition, the Pilgrim Monument and Provincetown Museum collects, preserves, interprets, researches, exhibits, and publishes archival historical materials and exhibit materials depicting important events of Provincetown history. www.pilgrim-monument.org.
